

HOUSE BILL No. 1411

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 32-29-7.

Synopsis: Foreclosure prevention and post-foreclosure leases. Requires a court, in a mortgage foreclosure action with respect to an occupied dwelling, to consider evidence concerning the effect of the foreclosure. Requires the court to withhold entry of judgment in a foreclosure action for 180 days if the court finds: (1) entry of a judgment of foreclosure will have a negative effect on the occupant or neighborhood or may lead to the house becoming vacant; and (2) there is a reasonable possibility that withholding entry of judgment in a foreclosure action will reduce the negative effects. Permits a court to require a mortgagee to rent a dwelling to the debtor after entry of the judgment of foreclosure if the mortgagee does not intend to file a praecipe for sale within 60 days after entry of the judgment and certain other conditions are met. Provides that certain maintenance obligations that apply to landlords do not apply to a mortgagee-landlord.

4 foreclosure action filed with respect to a dwelling occupied by the 5 mortgagor.

6 (b) Before entering a judgment in favor of the plaintiff in a
7 mortgage foreclosure action, the court shall, upon motion by the 8 defendant or upon the court's own motion, consider evidence

11 (2) the effect of foreclosure on the neighborhood;
12 (3) efforts the mortgagor has taken to avoid foreclosure;
13 (4) the effect of foreclosure on the mortgagee;
14 (5) the mortgagee's plan for the property;
15 (6) whether the property will be vacant or abandoned after

1 the foreclosure; and

2 (7) any other effects that the foreclosure is likely to cause.

3 The court may consider evidence from the mortgagor, the
4 mortgagee, the Indiana housing and community development
5 authority (created by IC 5-20-1-3), a mortgage foreclosure
6 counselor (as described in IC 5-20-6-2), the representative of a
7 neighborhood homeowners association or development group, and
8 any other person with relevant knowledge and experience.

9 (c) If the court finds that:

10 (1) entry of a judgment of foreclosure:

11 (A) will, more likely than not, have a negative effect on the 12 mortgagor or the neighborhood; or

13 (B) will, more likely than not, cause the property to become 14 vacant or abandoned; and

15 (2) there is a reasonable possibility that withholding entry of 16 a judgment of foreclosure may mitigate the negative effects
17 described in subdivision (1);

18 the court shall withhold entry of the judgment of foreclosure for 19 not more than one hundred eighty (180) days.

20 (d) If, during the period in which the judgment of foreclosure is 21 withheld, the property is sold to another person, the court shall 22 dismiss the foreclosure action.

23 (e) If, at the conclusion of the period during which the judgment
24 is withheld, the property has not been sold, the court shall enter the 25 judgment of foreclosure. However, the court may, for good cause
26 shown, extend the period during which judgment is withheld by not 27 more than ninety (90) days.

28 (f) A withheld judgment under this section does not affect:
